Dublin's Nightlife Scene

From music and dance in a traditional Irish pub to DJs mixing the latest chart sounds in a contemporary club, Dublin's nightlife scene is renowned throughout the world. The finest local and international food enjoyed amid a sumptuous bar setting, and followed by cocktails and fine wines, confirms the city's well-deserved status as a nightlife mecca.

Add to that evening river and ghost bus tours, nights out at a casino and visits to the iconic Guinness Storehouse and Riverdance show, and you've got yourself one night-time trip to remember.

Take a journey through our listings and discover quirky little pubs, authentic Irish hosteries, celeb-strewn clubs and jaw-droppingly gorgeous bar restaurants. Many of those listed offer live and DJ music, as well as food and entertainment, so read through our listings to ensure you discover your night out of choice. Don't forget to check venue websites and Facebook pages for all the latest news and events. Have a great night!

PURPLE FLAG AWARD

Dublin City's Creative Quarter and Dame District are among the first places in the Republic of Ireland to receive the international Purple Flag award. This prestigious accreditation scheme honours excellence in the appeal and management of a town or city centre area between the hours of 5pm and 5am. Purple Flag centres offer the highest quality in shopping, dining, pubs and entertainment ensuring visitors have all they need for a great evening out. The award is bestowed by the Association of Town Centre Management, and Dublin's Creative Quarter and Dame District joins locations like London's Covent Garden, Belfast's Cathedral Quarter and Liverpool City Centre in achieving this coveted award.

G4/5 SWEENEY'S BAR

32 Dame Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 635 0056, sweeneysmongrel@gmail.com.
sweeneysbar.com, www.sweeneysdublin.ie

In the heart of Dublin city centre, Sweeney's Bar plays host to more than 60 live bands per week, from Jazz, Funk, Reggae, Blues, Trad, Hip Hop, Indie and everything in-between. Spread across 3 floors, each stage is kitted out with top of the range industry spec equipment to provide the best sounds. Home to Dimstore Recordings, Reggae Fever, Retro Revival, The Boneyard Junkies, Gotcha, D-Ridiculous All Stars, Sweeney's Jazzmen, FOAD LOQ and many many more. Whiskey is the name of the game in the basement bar, with a wide range of regular and premium whiskeys on offer in the Jameson Bar. Sweeney's also carries its very own Sweeney's draught beer, on sale at only €4. Free entry most nights. Open Mon & Tue 10.30am-11.30pm, Wed-Sat until 2.30am, Sun 12pm-11pm.

G8 ODEON

57 Harcourt Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 478 2088, www.odeon.ie

A hidden gem nestled behind the classical pillars of the old Harcourt Street train station, The Odeon has retained the elegance of the bygone era in which it was built. The venue has a distinct air of old-Hollywood glamour, featuring a 30 foot, luxurious marble bar and framed pictures of screen icons and goddesses. The venue has four separate bars, one of which leads to a fully heated outdoor smoking area where you're never far from the crowd. Boasting a drinks menu to die for, The Odeon's mixologists guarantee a tipples for every taste. The Odeon provides a brilliant backdrop for any soirée featuring some of Dublin's top DJs every Friday Saturday and Bank Holiday Sunday. Open Mon-Fri, 12pm to late. Sat and Bank Holiday Sun, 4pm to late.

G5 DAKOTA

8/9 South William Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 672 7696, www.dakotabar.ie

Dakota is renowned for quality food and drink served impeccably in a modern and chic interior. South William Street has long flourished as a destination for hip eateries and bars and when this converted warehouse, opened its doors in 2000, it became a trendy hub in this vibrant quarter. During the day Dakota serves fine freshly made food and offers an oasis of calm in the city centre. At night it transforms into a fashionable rendez-vous for drinks and dinner but it's at weekends that it truly comes alive with great music playing, providing a stylish place to party until late. Check out the resident DJs during an eclectic mix of genres on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. Open seven days a week from 12pm until late. Serving food daily from 12pm.

G5 4 DAME LANE

4 Dame Lane, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 679 0291, www.4damelane.ie

This trendy music bar in the city centre is in stark contrast to neighbouring, traditional bars. An understated entrance is highlighted by flaming torches which lead into a large minimalist room. A red brick wall is lined with comfortable seating but the focus of the space is a DJ box and a long, long bar. The upstairs bar has a New York loft feel and it is always packed to the rafters with Dublin's chic giving it a great vibe. Experience some of Dublin's best DJs with the likes of DJ Goldy, offering a mixture of funk, soul, disco and chart that has party-goers on the floor dancing until the small hours. Don't miss out on the extensive cocktail list and many other tempting libations. Open until late from Tue to Sat 5pm to late. Sun 4pm to late.

J4 ITAS

6-7 Hanover Street East, D2
Helpline 1890 365 700, Tel: 016610562
info@itas.ie, www.itas.ie

The Irish Tourist Assistance Service (ITAS) is a free nationwide service offering support and assistance to tourist victims of crime. ITAS acts as a base where problems facing a tourist in these situations can be addressed promptly with the view to getting holiday plans back on track. Our office is open 7 days a week.

C4 PIFKO BAR

41-43 Usher's Quay, D8
t. (+353) (0)1 515 2087, www.pifkobar.com

In the Czech Republic, the word 'Pifko' means pint. The Czechs, like the Irish, know the importance of enjoying a pint in good company and the right surroundings. If you are looking for the perfect place to catch up with your friends over a pint or two, then Pifko bar has a table for you. Pilsner comes from the city Pilsen (Plzeň) in the Czech Republic where the world's first pilsener beer was brewed. Pifko not only provides the finest Czech lagers but superb Irish/ Slovak fusion food to accompany them. This amazing, comfortable bar is as well known for its menu as its lagers! The speciality is goulash in a bread bowl or 'halusky' dumplings with real Slovak 'Brynza' sheep cheese. Try the Czech specials at the weekends such as 'Svíčková' sirloin of beef with vegetable creamy sauce and bread dumplings. Open Mon-Thur 11:00am-11:30pm, Fri 11:00am-12:30am, Sat 12:00pm-12:30am, Sun 12:00pm-11:00pm.

G4 THE BANK BAR & RESTAURANT

20-22 College Green, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 677 0677, www.bankcollegegreen.com

An excellent choice for all manner of functions and engagements, this city centre stand-out serves a range of quality food all day including breakfast, lunch, and dinner. The Bank also caters for large parties with an extensive choice of finger food, set menu and buffet options. The Bank has continually strived to provide their patronage with a consummate range of quality products and service that surpasses today's call for quality, value and comfort yet still complement the remarkable example of Victorian architectural splendour that is their premises. The building, which was designed by one of the British Empire's leading architectural lights - William Henry Lynn - was once described as one of the foremost jewels of Victorian Dublin! The Bank Bar & Restaurant was delighted to be awarded the National Hospitality Ireland Bar of the Year 2011. This award was also won in 2010 and 2009. Open Sun 11am-12am, Mon-Thu 10.30am-11.30pm, Fri & Sat 10.30am-2.30am

G6 SINNOTT'S BAR

South King Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 478 4698, www.sinnotts.ie

Sinnott's is situated on King Street, Dublin and is directly under St Stephen's Green Shopping Centre. Reopened in 1989 after St Stephen's Green Shopping Centre was built, Sinnott's is a traditional style bar which is home to a large collection of original literary pictures and prints from a selection of Irish artists and writers including James Joyce. This is a regular haunt for sports fans in Dublin for all televised games, including Rugby, Soccer, GAA & American Football. 10 large screens throughout the Bar provide customers with a state of the art audio visual system, allowing multiple games to be shown simultaneously. Sinnott's has become renowned for its Carvery lunches which are popular with locals & professionals and are great value for money. All food is prepared using quality local produce & ingredients. Lunch served from 12-2.30pm daily. An extensive A La Carte Menu is available daily until 9pm. Open Late Thursday to Saturday.

H2 THE CONFESSION BOX

88 Marlborough Street, D1
t. (+353) (0)1 828 0028.

During the 1919-21 War of Independence rebel volunteers under Michael Collins sought refuge in this public house, 'The Maid of Erin', as it was then called, was used by sympathetic clergy so that the rebels might receive the sacraments and make their confession in secret rooms. The small size of the room and its proximity to the Pro-Cathedral led to it becoming known locally as 'The Confession Box'. One of the smallest bars in Dublin, The Confession Box is situated in the heart of Dublin in the shadow of the Pro-Cathedral and near the Spire and Luas. The authentic coss Dublin pub is frequented by local Dublin regulars and many repeat visitors from afar. Feel at home as you relax or join in the banter and craic. This historic pub was recently renovated and is run by the friendliest of Dublin bar staff who promise an enjoyable and comfortable visit. With coverage of major TV sport events and great weekend live music all tastes are catered for. Open Mon-Thur 10.30am-11.30pm, Fri & Sat until 12.30am, Sun 12.30pm-1.1pm.

F7 DEVITT'S PUB

78 Lower Camden Street
t. (+353) (0)1 475 3414, www.devittspub.ie

A family run pub for over 35 years... unique is the perfect word to describe Devitt's. Steeped in GAA tradition, Devitt's is the perfect place to watch all the Championship action. Traditional Irish food is served six days a week and every Thursday, Friday and Saturday night, some of the most talented musicians in Dublin come to play. Located right in the middle of the hustle and bustle of Camden St, Devitt's provides excellent traditional music to both tourists and Dubliners alike. The upstairs lounge is the perfect venue for an intimate session, with the Friday night session in particular, led by the mighty Gerry Quinn, a must-see. Open Mon-Thur 10.30am-11.30pm, Fri & Sat until 12.30am, Sun 12.30pm-11pm.

The Aungier Street

Aungier Street dates back to the C17th and boasts the oldest line of houses in Dublin. More importantly, it is home to some of the oldest licensed premises in Ireland which still provide refreshment and a warm welcome to locals and travellers alike. During the day enjoy its interesting array of shops or if you are romantically minded, why not say a prayer at the relic of St Valentine located in Whitefriar St church! This street is best known for its Night Life with an interesting choice of bars, music venues and restaurants to choose from. For a great night out, this street has it all!

F6 DELANEYS

18 Aungier Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 475 3808, delaneys.aungierstreet.com

If an excellent pint and a bit of craic with the locals is what you are after, go no further than Delaney's. This is a local pub in every sense of the word where regulars give visitors a warm welcome, treating fellow drinkers to plenty of stories and yarns. This isn't a flashy pub but it is renowned for its friendly atmosphere and efficient staff who will pour you one of the best pints in Dublin. If you don't want to join in the chat at the bar, it also provides a relaxing atmosphere where you can chat to mates or just wile away an afternoon, soaking in the atmosphere. The pub has been recently renovated and has a modern but very comfortable beer garden at the back with plasma TV and heating. Open Mon-Thurs 12pm-11.30pm Fri & Sat 12pm - 00.30am Sun 12.30pm-11pm.

F6 THE SWAN BAR

16 Aungier Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 475 2722

This icon of Irish licensed heritage has dispensed sustenance, shelter and social culture to the citizenry of Dublin for at least six centuries. Totally unique amongst Dublin pubs, The Swan is an authentic Victorian pub that was once a medieval inn. There has been a continuous licence on this site since 1661 when Sir Francis Aungier developed what was then Dublin's widest street. The interior dates from 1897 and is one of the few remaining intact Victorian bars left in the city. The pub has played a key role in the evolution of the Irish nation as the premises was occupied by the Irish volunteers in 1916 and again by the anti-treaty forces in 1922. The pockmarks of artillery fire are still clearly visible on the exterior of the building. The pub was bought in 1937 by Clavan man John Lynch; his son Sean attained sporting fame playing rugby for Leinster, Ireland and The British and Irish Lions. He has the distinction of playing in all four tests in the only Lions team ever to beat the New Zealand All Blacks in the 1971 test series. The pub has a lot of Sean's rugby memorabilia on display. Call in and experience The Swan which is unique among Dublin's pub scene. Open Mon-Thurs and Sun 11am-11pm. Fri & Sat 11am - 03.00am.

G5 ACAPULCO MEXICAN RESTAURANT

7 5th Great Georges Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 677 1085, www.acapulco.ie

Sizzling with all the colour and exuberance of Latin America, this funky laid-back Mexican restaurant serves spicy fajitas, burritos, enchiladas and other authentic Mexican treats. Burgers, steaks and salads ensure all tastes are catered for... and the herbivores among you will love that practically every dish has a vegetarian option. For a finale you'll find in few (if any) other places, check out the deep fried ice cream on the dessert menu. Margaritas and tequilas guarantee a lively night to remember - just keep an eye on those pitchers. Open Mon-Thur 12pm-10.30pm, Fri until 11pm, Sat 1pm-11pm, Sun 2pm-10.30pm.

D3 JAMESON BARRELMANS FEAST

ojd@jamesonwhiskey.com
t. (+353) (0)1 8072355

Join the whiskey revolution - that is the burgeoning crowd of 30-somethings who have taken up the old Irish tipples as their regular order - and book in to a Jameson Barrelman's Feast. Bringing Irish traditions into the modern day with a bang, the night takes place at the Old Jameson Distillery in Dublin 8 and includes a Jameson cocktail, four course meal, live music from Sine Metu and other modern Irish greats and the Jameson story as told by one of their charming barrelmen. Tickets cost €60, but book online at Bookings.JamesonWhiskey.com and you'll get it all for the discounted price of €49.50. Takes place on Thursdays and Saturday nights* subject to availability.

G6 RIVERDANCE AT THE GAILEY THEATRE

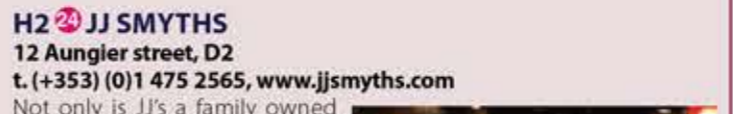

Gailey Theatre, South King Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 677 1717
www.gaileytheatre.ie

Of all the performances to emerge from Ireland - in rock, music, theatre and film - nothing has carried the energy, sensuality and spectacle quite like Riverdance. This summer, visitors to Dublin can experience this legendary dance and music extravaganza as Riverdance celebrates its 20th anniversary with a return to the Gailey Theatre for its 11th summer from 24th June to 31st and 31st August 2014. This fusion of Irish and international music and dance was initially performed as a 7min interval act at Dublin's 1994 Eurovision Song Contest, and has gone on to break global box-office records playing to over 25 million people in 11,000 performances in 46 countries. Its innovative fusion of dance, music and song draws on Irish traditions and combines the talents of the remarkable Riverdance Irish Dance Troupe. Riverdance Band and a spectacular array of international guest artists, all performing to the magic of Bill Whelan's music. Riverdance runs six days a week, eight shows a week for ten weeks. Tickets €10-€55.

H2 JJ SMYTHS

12 Aungier Street, D2
t. (+353) (0)1 475 2565, www.jjsmyths.com

Not only is JJ's a family owned bar where locals meet up for a great pint and a bit of banter, it is also the heart of Dublin's Jazz and Blues scene. This atmospheric pub is one of the oldest bars in Dublin, having had a continuous licence since the 1730s. It is also part of Dublin's literary past, being the birth place of the famous Irish poet and playwright Thomas Moore in May 1779. Downstairs the friendly staff and regular clientele will welcome you for a few jars day and night but it is at night, that the upstairs bar offers music lovers some of the best local and international Blues and Jazz acts, in a relaxed, intimate 'listening' atmosphere. It is no surprise that JJ's has been likened to a smaller version of the famous Ronnie Scott's music venue in London. There is free music in the bar every Monday night and a popular guitar night on last Tuesday of every month. Find out what's on by checking the listings on the website, or call in for a pint and a chat. www.jjsmyths.com. Open Mon-Thurs 10.30am-11.30pm Fri & Sat 10.30am-00.30am Sun 12.30pm-11pm. Over 18's only.

B5 GUINNESS STOREHOUSE

St James's Gate, Luas James's, D8
t. (+353) (0)1 408 4800, www.guinness-storehouse.com

Dating back to 1904, the Guinness Storehouse opened as this magnificent visitor experience in 2000. Your discovery of the world's most famous brew begins with the four magic ingredients: water, barley, hops and yeast. Next a virtual master brewer explains the alchemy that transforms them into the creamy pint. Here, too, you can Taste the Brew under the professional guidance of the 'Tasting Team'. Histories of the transportation process and the art of coopering (barrel-making) are also revealed. And a large projector illustrates the international reach of this iconic drink. Guinness's ground-breaking advertising campaigns are showcased on the third floor. The newly refurbished Guinness Archive also displays specially selected reproductions, including previously unseen press and poster advertisements, label collections and original documentation dating from the 19th and 20th centuries. Hone your pint pouring skills in the brand new Guinness themed bar in the Academy on the fourth floor. Or upgrade to enjoy samples of the four most popular variants, with an intimate tasting experience in the connoisseur experience. Then head to the Brewers Dining Hall on FIVE for a great range of wholesome and traditional dishes, many of which are infused with the unmistakable Guinness taste. The high point of your visit is the seventh floor GRAVITY Bar where a complimentary pint of creamy Guinness can be savoured against a stunning 360° backdrop of its home city. Back at the ground floor, the flagship Guinness Store sells a vast array of branded merchandise. The Guinness Storehouse is a 15min walk from the city centre. Open daily 9.30am-5pm. July & Aug until 7pm. Adult €16.50, 18+ with Student ID/Senior Citizen €13, U18 €10.50, 6-12 €6.50, Family (2+4) €40. 10% adult online discount.

Capel St and Parnell St

Capel St. is one of the city's oldest commercial streets. It is situated just a stone's throw from Jameson's Distillery and the Dublin markets area. It is unique in that it home to the majority of Dublin's Early Houses. These are imbibing establishments that open their doors at 7.00am to provide those working nightshifts in the markets and elsewhere, with some well earned sustenance. It's well worth exploring one of the most interesting streets in the city where you can still buy almost anything, from fine art to hardware. As well as fine Irish fayne served in the many excellent pubs and bars, Capel St. is host to a plethora of ethnic restaurants. Dublin's China Town can be found to the north and along the west of adjoining Parnell St. Don't miss out on a visit to this vibrant area which has a lively night scene, with live music in many of the bars. If you fancy more sedate entertainment the Gate Theatre and Ambassador Cinema are situated on Parnell Square.

F3 SLATTERY'S BAR

129-131 Capel Street, D1
t. (+353) (0)1 874 6844 www.slatterysbar.com

The World Famous Slattery's Bar on Capel Street was established in 1870. Since opening its doors Slattery's has hosted some of the greats of Irish music. U2 had one of their first gigs here as did Thin Lizzy while Van Morrison, Christy Moore and The Chieftains were regulars. This tradition continues today with live music every Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Slattery's is open from 7am daily and serves the best Irish breakfast in Dublin as recommended by Anthony Bourdain. Food is served until 9pm daily. All live sports are shown on our big screens and if its Guinness you are after, you won't find a better pint in the world! You can smell St James gate from the front door! Our 1916 commemorative wall is piece of art and like Slattery's its not to be missed while visiting Dublin. Slattery's open from 7am daily.
